TRAFFIC FLOWING SMOOTHLY

FAIRFAX, VA. – The Sunday night traffic on the bridges traveling in and out of Washington D.C. is light and flowing smoothly, the Virginia Department of Transportation reports. At 6:30 this evening, there was a short period of heavy traffic on northbound I-395 near Army-Navy Drive into D.C. but that cleared up by 7:30 p.m.

Motorists can call 511 or log onto www.511Virginia.org for the latest traffic and travel conditions.
