CAUTION

An unknown male is being sought in connection with the attempted kidnapping of an 18-year-old girl in Martins Ferry, Ohio, and the kidnapping and sexual assault of an 11-year-old girl in North Wheeling, West Virginia. On the evening of February 18, 2007, the suspect, who was wearing only a coat and boots, allegedly approached the 18-year-old victim and asked her for directions. When she saw that he was mostly naked, she screamed and ran away. The man attempted to chase her, however she was able to escape. Then, on the evening of February 20, 2007, the suspect, who this time was naked except for a pair of socks, allegedly approached the 11-year-old victim and asked her for directions. He was able to grab the girl and forced her into his vehicle (see below). The girl was sexually assaulted and released approximately forty minutes later in Bridgeport, Ohio.
